'57-'58 Central Committee Governs Honor Study Halls

The Central Committee's job is one of the most important responsibilities in the functioning of our school. This committee is the governing body of a unique program called Honor Study Hall.

Six seniors are appointed to the committee annually by the preceding year's committee. In order to be eligible you must be a member of the Honor Study Hall and of the junior class and be a very democratic individual. When choosing the new members, teachers' and deans' recommendations are also taken into consideration. It is an honor, a privilege, and certainly a worthwhile experience to belong to this group.

Next year's committee, which will consist of the traditional number, three girls and three boys, is as follows: John Tomasch, president; Tom Lenhart, vice-president; Carol Fox and Pat Tenbeau, co-secretaries; Polly Ham, student council representative; and Jerry Fritz, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Sellers, the faculty adviser of the organization, will continue to counsel in this capacity next year.

The new committee has many duties to look forward to. They appoint or remove advisers and apprentices, and determine what students will be admitted to Honor Study Hall. Attendance is checked daily in the Deans' offices by two members of the Central Committee. They have the authority to hold court for all violators of the Honor Study Hall pledge, and to remove them when necessary.

'Variety' Is Theme Of 1957 Gristmill

It's new! It's here! It's excitingly different! Not a paper, not a magazine, but the 1957 Gristmill, Shaker's yearbook, the most looked-forward-to item since the first football game, has arrived with a variety of colors, chuckles and characters.

And a variety it is, for that is the theme, chosen by the Gristmill staff, under the direction of faculty adviser George Starr and Editor-in-Chief Emy Stark.

Planned for distribution today, the Student Council representatives passed out the 1500 copies to eager Shakerites. For those unfortunate enough to miss receiving one, they may be obtained from Business Manager Dick Inglis at specified times during exam week.

Gristmill

Pages 3 and 4 of this issue are devoted to pictorial coverage of senior activities, prepared by the new Gristmill staff, and to the Shakerite's Senior Directory. These pages are intended as a supplement for the Gristmill. Cut off the strips of ads, fold, and paste or clip in your yearbook.

Red-Skirted Squad Chosen to Cheer

"Extra, extra, read all about it, we've got a team, there's no doubt about it," and after next year's cheerleaders were chosen from the many ambitious girls that tried out, it is obvious that Shaker will have another good cheerleading squad, "there's no doubt about it!"

Ninety-nine sophomore and junior girls signed up for the five practice sessions. The first one was held Tuesday, April 23, and the last was May 7. The preliminary try-outs were held May 13, and the top nineteen hopefuls participated in the finals May 17. Winners included: juniors Joyce Zucker, Midge Sheppard, Linda Levenson, and sophomores Paula Bodwell and Mary Kral.

'57 Citizenship Trophies Go to Herzog and Geigel

At Shaker Heights High School's annual Honor Day Assembly held Wednesday, May 29, at 1:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium, the 1957 Shaker Square Association Trophies were awarded to Anne Herzog, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Herzog of 3276 Avalon Road, Shaker Heights, and Arthur Geigel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Geigel of 23804 East Groveland, Beachwood.

The Citizenship Awards, highest honor a Shaker High student can achieve, are made each year to one senior girl and one senior boy considered by vote of their classmates to excel in scholarship, in character, and in service to the school.

In March Arthur was among 24 seniors awarded gold Scholarship Keys for maintaining a better than B+ average from the ninth through the first semester of the twelfth grade.

Anne has been a member of the Student Council, girls' Leaders Club, Y-Teen, and the Demerit Panel. As a senior she has been captain of Cheerleaders, as a junior captain of Boosters and junior class secretary.

Arthur has been a Booster and member of Demerit Panel and Social Council. In his sophomore year he was vice-president of Hi-Y, in his junior year class treasurer and treasurer of Hi-Y, and, as a senior, class treasurer and vice-president of combined Hi-Y. He will attend Hiram College this September, and has won a Certificate of Merit in the National Merit Scholarships.

Other seniors nominated for the Citizenship Award and receiving Book Awards are Karen Macey, president of Sharcs, member and in junior year secretary of girls' Swimming Leaders, secretary of the Central Committee, and member of the yearbook staff, girls' Leaders Club, and Social Council; Emilie Stark, Editor-in-Chief of the yearbook and member of the Demerit Panel, girls' Leaders Club, of which she was treasurer in her junior year, and Y-Teen, serving as president in sophomore year, and sophomore class secretary; Jack Freund, president of Student Council, sophomore class vice-president, junior class president, member of the Varsity S Club, and captain of varsity football; and Roger McArt, sophomore class president, captain of Boosters, Social Council treasurer in junior year and president in senior year, and varsity football, basketball, and baseball player all three years.

Seven Students Take Responsibility For Dealing With Rule Offenders

Assuming the responsibility for next year's Demerit Panel will be the following students: Chairman, Robbi Cox; seniors Al Shroyer, Mary Jane DiGiovanni, John Dickey, Irene Stifel; and juniors Tom Webb and Nancy Stark. The work of this panel is complicated.

If a student acquires five demerits, he is summoned to appear before the Demerit Panel.

The Demerit Panel consists of seven members: the Vice-president of the Student Council, two senior boys and girls, and one junior boy and girl. The seniors serve for one year, and the juniors serve for two. The members are chosen by the present panel and by the deans, according to scholarship and citizenship.

The panel talks with students who have more than five demerits, discusses the problems of these students with them, and suggests possibilities for improvement. The Demerit Panel can suggest an appropriate action to one of the deans. This action can range from removal of the demerits to suspension from school.

Juniors and Sophs Elect New Chiefs

At last all the weeks of waiting are over, and the 13th of the month, contrary to superstition, became a lucky day for ten members of the sophomore and junior classes.

Monday, May 13th, was the day the class officers for next years senior and junior class were elected. Up until several years ago, these elections were held in the fall, but it has since been discovered that election of the officers in the spring enables them to have more time for discussing and planning the following year's activities. The sophomores, of course, will elect their officers in the fall.

At election time, each homeroom sent a delegate to its individual class nominating committee. This delegate brought with him a slate chosen by his homeroom. From a composite of all such slates came the slate which was submitted to the entire class for a general election.

Serving the senior class next year will be: president, Jon Krupnick; vice-president, Ken Dery; secretary, Mary Jane DiGiovanni; treasurer, John Tomasch; Social chairman, Ellen Sherby.

The junior class elected Jack Sanders, president; Mike Wolland, vice-president; Betsy Farrager, secretary; Dick Bell, treasurer; Paula Bodwell, social chairman.

Starlight Stomp Set for June 1

Good weather and clear skies may make possible a star-studded canopy for the Starlight Stomp, the last all-school dance of the season.

The Starlight Stomp will be held the night of June 1 from 8:30 to 12:00 in the north parking lot. The decoration committee has been busy planning to transform the parking lot into a gay and colorful outdoor garden. Perhaps a bright moon and a glimpse of a comet may add to the night sky glamor. If the weather proves contrary, the dance will be held in the girls' gym. The price of admission is $1.50 per couple.

Wayne Kendall and his band will help to create a moonlight melody mood with his lilting dance tunes. Next year's student council will present the dance. John Ferguson and Robbi Cox are the co-chairmen and are also in charge of decorations. Head of the refreshment committee is Dennis Crumbine and Phil Stone and Jon Shaw will head the publicity committee. John Smith and Dave Smith are in charge of tickets.

Especially for Seniors

As one nostalgic senior sighed, "This is it!" It's a little sad to realize that this is the last time we "57ers" will all be together as one group, laughing at the same jokes and sharing the same problems. However, the seniors are pretty well agreed that they are leaving with mixed emotions, saddened by the thought of leaving familiar faces and places and excited for the unknown experiences of the future.

Remember how scared we were to leave our elementary schools and faced the strange, new experience of junior high? But it wasn't long before we were in the full swing of our first canteens and school dances, spirited school-wide elections, and intramural games. Remember "Room for One More," and Miss Snow's School House? And what about our first bouts with algebra, Honor Day, and our ninth grade prom with Rudy Brown? Quicker than we had ever dreamed, our three years at junior high drew to a close and once again a feeling of anxiety passed over us thinking of entering the "terrifying" high school across the campus.

As sophomores we were the victims of practical jokes played by the leering upperclassmen, but we stuck together and tried to conquer our feelings of uncertainty. Remember what a thrill it was sitting in the stands at our first football game, and cheering our own team, the JayVees? Soph girls will definitely remember the charges they received when they were noticed and even dated by the "older men." "Annie Get Your Gun," the mass exodus for Columbus for the state meets, the Student Council Convention—all of these will remain long in our memory's scrapbook of high school. Now, during these last few days before graduation, we realize that too quickly we're moving away from these memories. Again, as we did at the end of elementary school, and as we did at the end of junior high, we find ourselves a little fearful of the uncertain future.

We can only hope that during our three years at Shaker we have successfully accepted the challenge to contribute to our school and as seniors to assume the responsibility of leading it. Before we are aware of it, we will be face to face with Mr. Rupp, accepting our final diplomas. One thing is for certain, though, and that is that although we might eventually forget our common troubles and joys, our happy memories and sad ones, we will never forget each other.

Honor Assembly Inaugurates Memorable Graduation Week

by Dave Meil

Graduation from high school isn't a common occurrence. In fact, it happens only once in a lifetime, and it's happening to Shaker's seniors next week.

The Honor Day assembly, which was held this afternoon for the entire student body, was the first in the train of events that annually precede commencement. This assembly not only honored the present seniors, who "stole the show," but also gave the sophomores and juniors a look at their newly-elected and appointed.

Following the processional, which traditionally opens the Honor Day assembly, Jack Freund, president of the Student Council, led the students in the pledge to the flag. He then introduced Curt Telzrow, president of the senior class, who gave his farewell address and presented the class gift.

At this point in the program, the many honors and awards won by seniors were presented. Among these were the departmental awards, the citizenship awards, and the athletic and the scholarship awards. Following this, Mike Partington, Richard Horowitz, and Roger McArt, chairmen of the Central Committee, the Demerit Panel, and the Social Council, respectively, introduced the new members and officers of these organizations.

At this time Jack Freund gave his farewell comments and presided at the installation of the new Student Council officers. He then handed over the gavel to next year's president, John Ferguson. The students sang the Alma Mater to conclude the assembly.

On Friday evening, June 7, when final exams and the Senior Prom are over, commencement ceremonies will be held in the stadium, provided that the weatherman conjures some favorable atmospheric conditions. The speaker for this occasion will be Rufus S. Day, renowned attorney and former president of the Shaker Board of Education. The A Cappella Choir will precede Mr. Day's address with two appropriate selections.

Commencement will be the last, and perhaps the most memorable event in the graduating seniors' high school careers.

Crowning of Queen at Prom Climaxes Graduation Week

Formals, flowers, white dinner jackets, and all the excitement of the Senior Prom are once more around the corner. On June 6, 1957, the most anticipated event of the year takes place.

Dancing will be from 9:00 p. m.-1:00 a. m. at the Canterbury Country Club, with Vince Patti supplying the music for this very special occasion. The big attraction of the evening will be the crowning of the Senior Prom Queen at 11:00 p. m. Which lucky senior girl will it be? Nominations for the queen and her court will be held May 27, and the final elections will be May 29.

Many parties, including breakfasts, are being planned for the wee small hours of the morning and you can bet that Cleveland will be jumping that night. Miss Hollister, Mr. Thrailkill, and Mr. Holzhauser, plus the senior class officers, Curt Telzrow, president; Mike Partington, vice-president; Jinny Sifritt, secretary; Art Geigel, treasurer; and Betsy Karch, social chairman, are in charge of planning the Prom. The senior class homeroom teachers and the parents of the class officers are invited to attend this event.

Look and See With Peter B.

As I leave these halls of Shaker
A tear comes to my eye.
No more golden school days,
No more Shepherd's Pie.

Yes, goodbye Shaker, I leave now to spend the next four years of my life amongst ivy-covered walls—I'm going to work in a greenhouse.

I loved my graduation day,
I never have forgot her.
I know I would have loved it more,
If I had learned the Alma Mater.

High School was great to me. I was different from all the other 18-year-old seniors, I was 23. They chose me to play Abe Lincoln in the school play, I was the only kid with a beard. My teacher used to say to me, "Listen, stupid, (she always used to call me listen) cheer up, things could be worse." So I cheered up, and they were.

It's time again for another of Peter B's daring exposes, known simply as The Big Fib. Some of my more skeptical readers have questioned the usefulness of The Big Fib. They don't realize that The Big Fib prepares one for everyday life. It gives one practice in bilking his fellow man—a must in the business world. It makes it easy for you to tell an untruth in a truly convincing manner; this alone will greatly improve your golf game. Here is this week's Big Fib.

"The Boy Scouts are plotting to rule the world."

Following is a list of clever arguments calculated to convince your friends. (Mumbling the important words will confuse your opponents.)

1) Outwardly the Boy Scout appears as the average red-blooded American boy—with crew cut, white bucks, etc. . . . But just let them organize into cells (which they cunningly call "troops"), give them a uniform and a merit badge, and they go power-mad.

2) If you only knew what they got those merit badges for.

3) Boy Scouts are bullies at heart. This is best seen when a Boy Scout conducts an old lady across the street, especially if she doesn't want to go.

4) The Girl Scouts, of course, are mixed up in this also. They have their own secret weapons for weakening the enemy—Girl Scout cookies.

Walking in the parking lot is not dangerous; my friend Scar did it.

Senior Picnicking Finishes Big Year

May 29 is certainly a busy day for Shaker seniors this year. After the last award has been passed out at Honor Assembly, the excitement has just begun.

Around 4:30, some 300 senior students or so will be heading towards South Chagrin Reservation to have some fun at the annual Senior Picnic.

Last year, students packed lunches for the picnic here at school in the Girls' Gymnasium. It was suggested this year, however, that a lot of time and trouble could be saved if senior class funds could be used to buy lunches already packed.

Fun will definitely not be lacking at the picnic, for George Donahower's entertainment committee has planned softball, relays, and games.

Other senior students who have been working to make the picnic memorable are Linda Beamer and Roger McArt, student co-chairmen; Madge Douda and her refreshments committee; and Nancy Croley with the clean-up committee. Needless to say, Mr. Fred Holzhauser, senior class chairman, Miss Nancy Hollister, Mr. Neil MacKeigan, teacher-sponsor for the picnic, and several teacher-advisers have also been invaluable with their suggestions.

Sue Silverman and her committee have been hoping that they will be able to add something special to the picnic—a copy of the 1957 Senior Class Will and prophecy for everyone!

Latin Class Holds Annual Luncheon

Following a long-established Shaker tradition, nine seniors, accompanied by Dr. Evelyn Dilley, held the annual Latin luncheon.

The Cicero class, Dr. Dilley's fourth year class, left for Stouffer's Restaurant fourth period on Monday, May 27, and returned at the beginning of sixth period. In the Cicero class, the emphasis has been for the most part on literature rather than on grammar, so at the luncheon, the waitresses were not too surprised when they heard the seniors revitalizing Virgil, Ovid, or their favorite, Cicero.

Spring 1957 was characterized by a merry musical (Oklahoma!), fashion finds (Y-Teen style show), a water wonderland (Sharcs' pageant), a bronze bell (Lakewood's loss), and warm weather (May 7 and 8). While juniors waited apprehensively for College Boards, the seniors, who had already gone through this ordeal, waited apprehensively for college acceptances. Although the air was not always warm, but often wet, Shaker was engulfed with the usual spring gaiety, as students and teachers participated in a multitude of parties and picnics. Classrooms, too, felt the surge of spring fever, and the attention given to exam review was not always intense. As honor day and commencement drew closer, Shaker's seniors were beginning to think that maybe the old school wasn't such a bad place after all.

Bill German blocks Lakewood's attempt to retain bell.

Shaker's surprising track and baseball teams proved that this was not merely a character-building season by combining victories over Lakewood 60-58 and 7-1, respectively, to win the coveted bell. The strong golf squad won the east side city championship to qualify for the state meet.

Sharcs enjoy being in—up to their necks.

The Soph Class

By Karen Bass

Well, summer vacation is finally here (almost, anyway). It seems that most of us juniors-to-be are spending our vacations right around home: going to summer school, getting jobs, or just loafing. But our class will also be doing its share of traveling.

Invading near-by Pennsylvania will be the Judies Berne and Gordon, and Alorie Boyle. Stephanie Barrett will be heading for California come June 7, while this summer will find Dave Beeson on the sunny shores of Lake Chautauqua, New York.

Jeff Cole plans to go to Boston "to get married." (Why Boston?) Also preferring the East is Sue Griswold, who will visit New Jersey.

Ever wonder what our homeroom teachers will be doing during the summer months? Mrs. Kneifel, for one, is going to "that cute little restaurant" in Montreal to see "that adorable French waiter." (Without Mr. Kneifel, of course.) Jane Bradley will also visit our neighbor to the north.

Ken Sunshine is "drydocking" boats on Lake Erie this summer.

The exclusive "Homestead" in West Virginia will be the scene of part of Bonnie Beatty's vacation, and don't be surprised if Jean Hank comes back with a Texan drawl after her stay in Fort Worth.

Nina White and Leslie Ulevitch are two of the many Shakerites who will be going to the National Music Camp in Michigan. The Wolverine State will also be visited by Sarah Bliss.

Mike Clark would like to take either a guided tour through Russia or one of Peter Bergman's all-expense-paid trips to Cleveland Heights this summer.

Beverly Brooks and Carolyn Blake will be staying close to home. Toledo and Massillon. Alan Benson will be spending his summer in Conneaut, where he will be visited by Mike Rosenthal.

It won't be long now before we can forget about lab reports, A Tale of Two Cities, etc., etc., and so forth forever (we hope). Happy Exam Week!

Read If You Wanna

By Bonnie and Donna

Friends, Faculty, Shakerites, lend us your ears;
We come to bury the Social Column, not to praise it.
The gossip that we have written lives after us.
(The truth never got a chance anyhow!)
The noble editors hath told you we were hopeless,
And if it were, it were all our fault.
Here we take leave of Mr. Randall and the Shakerite,
For Mr. Randall is an honorable man.
So are all the editors, all honorable men. (Et tu "honey chile")
May next year's social columnists ever remain in their favor!

Well, Seniors, you've made it—at least most of you. And for those who aren't quite sure, there's only one more week of suspense!

With all the seniors getting honored at the assembly, we would also like to bestow some honors. And so we present . . .

Shaker's Hall of Fame

For those who have distinguished themselves beyond the call of sanity.

Tom Shaw for daring to wear his two-letter sweater.

Liz Wright who accompanies everyone and everything that needs company.

Peter B.—the cynic with the curl on top.

Dave Wilcox—the Texan with the beat for bop.

Jack Freund for trying to make everyone repeat first period after assemblies.

Dick "Moon Dog" Doering—the only human tape recorder.

Curt Telzrow for the biggest appetite.

Karen Winston for her wit. (Nit-Wit!)

Doug Ganim who hits home runs with a tennis racket while dribbling down the court.

Jim Petznick for having the deepest blush.

Barbara Weinberger who gets honorable mention and runs a close second to Florence Nightingale.

Barb Hallett for putting up with Bill.

Jerry Jaffe whose grin is a delight. (Idiot's delight!)

Anne Herzog and Kathy Herron who have a monopoly on committee memberships.

Dotty Dedo and Carole Goldman—our unbalanced treasurers.

Nancy Croley who can't complain. (She got McLean!)

Bonnie Cobert and Donna Thompson for getting their names in the Social Column every issue.

Emy Stark—the all-around girl. (She smokes pipes).

Dick Horowitz—the all-around demerit man.

Mr. Zednik who's all around.

Speaking of always being around, we've had our share of space in the Shakerite. So as we fade out for the last time, we leave you with this thought:

We're almost finished now,
Just a few more words before we're through—
It's really been great fun
Making fun of all of you!

Fun Week Awaits Shaker Y-Teeners

Fun and fellowship await Y-Teeners at their annual Summer Conference at Camp Roosevelt during the week of August 25 to August 30.

Swimming, tennis, riding, and beach parties will be combined with discussions, club clinics, and interesting programs featuring outstanding speakers. Sophomore Carl Goodman and junior Lauretta Battle represent Shaker on the Summer Conference Planning Committee.

Miss Rose Bannaian, staff sponsor of Y-Teens, urges all interested members to register with her by June 1. Complete details and registration forms are available in her office. All Greater Cleveland Y-Teen girls from the 8th through 11th grades are invited to this year's Conference, which has as its theme "Focus on the Future."

Betsy Hurt, sophomore, has been chosen as Shaker's delegate to the Y-Teen State Conference, to be held from June 16 to June 22 at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio.

Art Scholarships

Victor Kord, Jerry Aidlin, and Blanche Vanis, Shaker alumni who will be graduating in June from the Cleveland Institute of Art, have received awards for graduate study in painting, industrial design, and silversmithing.

Sports Reports

By Dave Nagusky

It certainly appears as if April showers have brought May flowers to the Red Raiders' bats, for in their last five games the Shaker swatters have averaged nearly ten hits a game.

The new look first made its appearance on May 6 at the Shaker diamond, when the Raiders scored six runs in the first inning and then went on to bury Parma, 11-2. Shaker's two leading hitters, Bill German and Dwight Hunting, batted in three runs apiece, and Dick Schroeder had a good day, collecting a triple and a single. One of Hunting's two hits was a home run, the first for a Shaker player this season.

Winning pitcher Robbi Cox pitched four good innings and Tom Lenhart three.

May 9 must be classified as the day of revenge at Shaker. The Heinlenmen avenged a previous defeat at the hands of Lakewood by clobbering them 7-1 before the home crowd. Lou Body pitched a sparkling game, giving up only four hits. Body got tremendous support from the Shaker hitters, who blasted two Ranger hurlers for fourteen hits, a season high. Left fielder Ed Anzalone led the attack with three hits, and Ron Rudolph, Roger McArt, German, and Hunting each delivered two. This victory enabled Shaker to capture the coveted bell from Lakewood.

Ed Anzalone held the visiting Panthers runless once again in the eighth inning, but in the ninth, Dick Bloom, Euclid's leading hitter, got a hit and the sensational Larry Nosse, who relieved Peterson in the eighth, rapped a run-scoring double to left center field. Nosse, who has received some twenty college and six major league offers this spring, held the Raiders hitless in the ninth, and thus handed Anzalone his most heartbreaking defeat.

Benedictine, a finalist in last year's state baseball tournament, was the Red Raider's next opponent. The Bengals tallied six unearned runs off four Shaker errors and Lou Body in defeating the Red and White, 6-3. This was Body's second defeat of the campaign as against two victories. German and Anzalone each collected two hits for the losers.

On the following day, the Shaker nine won its fifth L E L. game of the season at the expense of Shaw. It was a one-sided affair all the way as the Shaker sluggers fattened their batting averages considerably. John D i c k e y got three hits, including a double; and both Dick Schroeder and Ron Rudolph s l a p p e d two. Schroeder knocked in three of Shaker's eight runs, and Rudolph added two more.

Robbi Cox won his second game, going the distance allowing three runs on five hits.

The Heinlenmen, although they have won only six of e l e v e n games, have an exceptional team batting average of .270. The team is very fortunate in having six regulars hitting over .300. Dwight Hunting, whose bat has been terrorizing opposing hurlers all season, leads the squad with a lofty .406. He is followed by Ron Rudolph who has a .350 average, Bill German, .346, Dick Schroeder .333, Jim Lavdas, .308, and Roger McArt at .304.

Pitcher Lou Body also has been outstanding in the fact that he has given up only one base on balls, that being intentional, in his last twenty-two innings pitched. A rare and commendable performance indeed.

Shaker fans were treated to an exceptionally exciting and well-played game when Euclid, the defending Lake Erie League champion, visited Shaker in an attempt to win their eighth straight game this year. For six-and-one-half innings neither team came close to scoring off pitchers Ed Anzalone or Euclid's Fred Peterson. However, in the seventh, the Red and White were determined to wreck Euclid's perfect record. Roger McArt opened with a walk. Dependable D w i g h t Hunting followed with a double down the left field line for Shaker's first hit. This left Raiders on second and third with no outs and catcher Bill German at bat. He was awarded an intentional base on balls. The bases were now loaded, giving the Heinlenmen an ideal opportunity to end the game. However, hurler Peterson settled down and stopped the Red Raiders cold.

Ganim Aims High At Columbus Meet

The Shaker tennis team was given an opportunity to flex its muscles at the expense of Gilmour Academy, Thursday, May 9.

Dick Inglis, Henry Du Laurence, and John Goetz swept the singles while the duos of Al Ganim and Sanford Luria, and Pete Bergman and Gary Schwartz took care of the doubles matches.

The next match for the defending city champions was against the always-powerful U.S. at the Preppers' courts. Doug Ganim set an excellent example for the team by defeating Jack Staples, the Preppers' top man, in two quick sets. However, only the second doubles team of Luria and Schwartz were able to follow suit. As a result of this defeat, the racquetmen were placed in a three-way tie for first place with Cleveland Heights and U.S. This tie will be played off during the week of May 20-24.

Under a new rule Shaker was permitted to enter two individuals in the singles event and two teams in the doubles competition in the district finals. This important elimination tournament was held at the Lakewood courts on Saturday, May 19.

At this tournament the Shaker boys clearly proved themselves tops. In the singles competition, Doug Ganim definitely p r o v e d himself a top state contender by not dropping a single set. He defeated Brush High Sophomore Bill Nagy 6-3, 6-0 in his last match.

Dick Inglis and Henry DuLaurence played magnificently as a doubles team, and thus also qualified themselves for the State tournament by defeating Cleveland Heights' two best players Ken Feingold and Ron Rubin in the finals.

Golfers Rate as Top State Power

With practically no match experience behind them, the Shaker golf squad faced the Lake Erie League and District meets in the same week.

Monday, May 13, was the day of the L. E. L. tourney and the Shaker team far outdistanced the others with a score of 335. Dale Huge tied for medalist honors with Gary Bill of Euclid, both recording 79's. In the playoff Bill triumphed on the third extra hole. Other scores for Shaker included an 82 by Dave Falk, an 86 by Loren Roth, and an 88 by Larry Kahn.

In the District meet only the two top teams were eligible for the State meet, in which the State champions earn their title. Shaker was an early finisher with a 329, and team after team came in shooting at that score. Chardon was the only successful team, winning with a 325. Shaker finished second, qualifying them to participate in the State meet. A 78 by Dale Huge was the second-best individual score of the day, while Bill Davidson of Ashtabula Harbor scored a 77, qualifying him, as medalist, to go to Columbus for the meet. Loren Roth had an 86, Dave Falk an 84, and Bill Atkinson carved out an 81.

Coach Cramer has high hopes of copping the state title, and will accompany the team to Columbus. The meet is scheduled for May 24-25.

Carlson Leads Five Hopefuls To State Track Competition

by Dan Jonas

Shaker's track team bounced back from a third-place showing in the Euclid Relays to defeat Euclid and Maple Heights and to qualify five boys for the state meet.

At the Euclid Relays, the Raiders' four-year domination came to an end as they finished third, behind Euclid and Shaw. However, the boys made a good showing and placed in many events. The discus team of Bill Carlson, Jim Slavin, and Pete Eichorn bettered the old meet record with a combined distance of 396 feet, but finished third. In the shot put Carlson, Eichorn, and Bruce Olderman totaled 138 feet to surpass another record and take second. Bob West, Vic Ippolito, and Chuck Frankel gave Shaker a third in the broad jump, while Ippolito, Jim May, and Ralph Waldo finished second in the high jump. Spence Kramer was second in the hundred with a 10.3 clocking, and Phil Jackson captured third place in the high hurdles. The team of Kramer, Carlson, Ippolito and West finished second in the 440 relay. But the best news of the evening for Shaker came in the 880 relay, in which Kramer, West, Jeffery, and Carlson took first with a time of 1:35.4, setting a new meet record.

It rained throughout most of the meet with Euclid, and the Shaker track was partially flooded when the Raiders avenged their defeat at the Euclid Relays by downing the Panthers, 62-56. J a c k s o n and Balazs finished second and third respectively in both high and low hurdles; Kramer copped the 100 and 220. Bob Hempel took first in the mile. Mike Partington placed second in the 440, and Piwonka and Bergin finished 2-3 in the 880. Tony Paul and Frank Crouse had a share in a four-way tie for first in the pole vault. May placed third in the high jump, which was held indoors, and Ippolito's best leap was good enough for second in the broad jump. Carlson won both the weight events, with Slavin taking a second in the discus. The 880 relay team of Kramer, Carlson, Jeffery, and West and the mile relay squad of Schwartz, Frankel, Jeffery, and Partington were victorious.

Two days later Shaker breezed to a 78-40 victory over Maple Heights at Shaker. Kramer and West finished first and second respectively in the 100, while Chuck Frankel and Tom Bergin accomplished the same feat in the 440. Jackson placed first and Dick Balazs second in the high hurdles.

Ippolito's leap of 19 feet 10 inches placed him first, followed by West and Frankel in that order, as Shaker swept the broad jump. May won the high jump, and Waldo finished third.

Once again Carlson was victorious in his specialties, winning the discus with a tremendous heave of 150 feet 1 inch, and capturing the shot put with a fine 54 foot 4 inch toss. Slavin took a third in the discus, and Eichorn seized third in the shot put. The mile r e l a y team of Bergin, Schwartz, Frankel, and Jeffery won, as did the 880 relay of Partington, West, Kramer, and Jeffery.

This victory prolonged the Raiders' perfect dual meet record for the season.

In the East Side Class AA meet at John Adams, won by Glenville's Tarblooders, Shaker placed tenth in a field of twenty. Bill Carlson placed third in both the shot put and discus, despite rugged competition, thus qualifying for the state meet at Columbus in the two events. His great throw of 55 feet, 4 inches in the shot put smashed his own school record. Shaker's 880-relay of Kramer, Jeffery, West, and Partington tied for fourth, and in doing so, also qualified for State.
